For your summer reading, read A Dog's Purpose by W. Bruce Cameron. This can be bought at any bookstore or ordered online. An audio version is also available.

Your assignment after reading the book is to use the format provided to make bullet points chronicling the main events of each life. For each life, begin by including the name of the dog, whether the dog is male or female, and the breed of the dog. Then list 5-10 bullet points explaining the main events in each life. These should be in complete sentences. Conclude with at least one sentence explaining the purpose in each dog's life.

This assignment must be typed using a readable font and double spaced. Include a heading and title for your assignment. Below is the format to follow in setting up your document and filling in the details of each of the four dog's lives. You may copy and paste this format into a new Google Document for your assignment. This assignment will be printed and turned in to your English teacher on the first day of school.
